MISS MALAWI

JOB DESCRIPTIONS FOR SECRETARIAT

1. Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

Position Title: Chief Executive Officer

Reports to: Board of Directors

Supervises: COO/Resource Mobilization, Chief Government Liaison & Protocol, Head of Finance, Partnerships Manager, Executive Aide (indirect), Contestants Liaison (indirect)

Role Purpose

The CEO is the strategic head and institutional custodian of the Miss Malawi Organisation. The role exists to set vision, ensure governance, protect the brand, and provide high-level leadership without operational micromanagement. The CEO empowers department heads to execute their mandates autonomously while remaining informed through structured reporting.

Key Responsibilities

Strategic Leadership and Vision

- Provide overall strategic direction for Miss Malawi, ensuring alignment with national values, international pageant standards, and the organisation's long-term vision.
- Approve annual strategic plans, advocacy priorities, and organisational policies proposed by functional heads.
- Safeguard the Miss Malawi brand, reputation, and institutional integrity.

Governance and Oversight

- Ensure compliance with organisational policies, ethical standards, and legal requirements.
- Serve as the final escalation point for cross-departmental issues without assuming operational roles.
- Chair executive coordination meetings to receive updates, not to execute tasks.

Leadership and Delegation

- Supervise, and evaluate senior management.
- Clearly delegate authority to department heads and respect operational boundaries.
- Avoid direct involvement in logistics, protocol execution, or day-to-day programme delivery unless in crisis situations.

External Relations

- Represent Miss Malawi at board-level, diplomatic, and strategic partner engagements when required.
- Approve high-level partnerships, MOUs, and sponsorship agreements negotiated by management.

Reporting

- Receive consolidated reports from the COO, Chief of Protocol, and Head of Finance.
- Ensure information flow without duplicating or overriding delegated mandates.

Decision-Making Authority

- Final approval on strategy, budgets, senior appointments, and institutional partnerships.
- Does not manage daily schedules, events, or Queen's movements.

2. Chief Operations Officer (COO) / Head of Resource Mobilization

Position Title: Chief Operations Officer & Head of Resource Mobilization

Reports to: CEO

Supervises: Operations staff, Resource Mobilization team

Role Purpose

The COO ensures the organisation is financially sustainable, operationally efficient, and resource-secure, enabling programs to run smoothly without burdening the CEO.

Key Responsibilities

Operations Management

- Oversee internal systems, workflows, procurement, logistics, and administration.
- Translate strategic plans into operational plans and timelines.

Resource Mobilization

- Lead fundraising, sponsorship acquisition, grant sourcing, and donor relations.
- Develop sustainable revenue models for Miss Malawi activities.

Budget Execution

- Work closely with the Head of Finance to ensure resources are allocated and utilised efficiently.
- Ensure departments operate within approved budgets.

Reporting

- Submit operational and financial performance reports to the CEO.

Authority

- Full authority over operations and fundraising execution within approved strategy and budget.

3. Chief Government Liaison Officer / Chief of Protocol

Position Title: Chief Government Liaison Officer & Chief of Protocol

Reports to: CEO

Supervises: Protocol Officers, Programme & Events Team

Role Purpose

This role is the ultimate authority on protocol, programmes, and the official life of the Miss Malawi Queen. It safeguards dignity, order, symbolism, and state-level standards in all engagements involving the Queen.

Key Responsibilities

Queen's Programme and Movements

- Design, manage, and execute the Queen's official programme, calendar, and engagements.
- Approve and coordinate all appearances, movements, speeches, and ceremonies involving the Queen.
- Ensure balance between advocacy, rest, brand obligations, and protocol considerations.

Protocol and Ceremonial Affairs

- Lead all VIP, state, diplomatic, and corporate protocol.
- Manage seating arrangements, precedence, dress codes, titles, courtesies, and ceremonial order.
- Serve as the final authority on protocol disputes or ambiguities.

Events and Ceremonies

- Plan and oversee national pageants, coronations, official launches, courtesy calls, and high-profile events.
- Coordinate with government offices, embassies, security agencies, and host institutions.

Speeches and Representation

- Oversee preparation, vetting, and alignment of speeches and remarks delivered by the Queen.
- Ensure messaging aligns with institutional positioning and cultural sensitivities.

Government Liaison

- Act as the primary interface between Miss Malawi and Government Ministries, Departments, and Agencies.
- Facilitate official invitations, state participation, and national representation.

Reporting

- Keep the CEO informed through structured briefings and post-event reports.

Authority

- Full operational authority over protocol, events, Queen's programme, and ceremonial matters.
- The CEO is informed, not operationally involved.

4. Executive Aide to Miss Malawi

Position Title: Executive Aide to Miss Malawi

Reports to: Chief of Protocol

Works Closely With: Miss Malawi Queen

Role Purpose

To provide personal, administrative, and logistical support to the Queen while strictly adhering to protocol directives.

Key Responsibilities

- Manage day-to-day coordination of the Queen's schedule as approved by the Chief of Protocol.

- Handle correspondence, briefing notes, and preparation materials.
- Ensure the Queen is prepared for appearances, meetings, and travel.
- Act as the immediate point of coordination without making independent programme decisions.

Authority

- Executes tasks; does not independently alter schedules or accept engagements.

5. Head of Finance

Position Title: Head of Finance

Reports to: CEO

Supervises: Finance and Accounts Staff

Role Purpose

To ensure financial integrity, accountability, and transparency across the organisation.

Key Responsibilities

- Prepare budgets, financial statements, and audit reports.
- Manage cash flow, payments, and financial controls.
- Ensure compliance with accounting standards and donor requirements.
- Advise management on financial risk and sustainability.

Authority

- Full authority over financial management within approved budgets.

6. Partnerships Manager

Position Title: Partnerships Manager

Reports to: COO

Works With: Chief of Protocol, CEO (for approvals)

Role Purpose

To build, manage, and grow strategic partnerships that advance Miss Malawi's advocacy, brand, and sustainability.

Key Responsibilities

- Identify and negotiate partnerships with corporates, NGOs, and institutions.
- Manage partner deliverables and expectations.
- Ensure partnerships align with the Queen's programme and institutional values.

Authority

- Negotiates partnerships subject to CEO approval.

7. Public Relations Officer (PRO)

Position Title: Public Relations Officer

Reports to: CEO (strategic alignment)

Works Closely With: Chief of Protocol, Partnerships Manager, Executive Aide to Miss Malawi

Supervises: Media assistants, content creators, photographers/videographers

Role Purpose

The Public Relations Officer is responsible for managing the public image, media narrative, and communications strategy of the Miss Malawi Organisation and the Miss Malawi Queen. The role exists to ensure consistent, dignified, and strategic storytelling that aligns with institutional values, advocacy goals, and national sensitivities.

The PRO operates with editorial and tactical autonomy, while keeping the CEO and Chief of Protocol informed through structured updates rather than approvals at every step.

Key Responsibilities

Media Relations

- Serve as the primary official spokesperson for the Miss Malawi Organisation, unless otherwise designated.

- Develop and maintain strong relationships with local, regional, and international media.
- Draft, issue, and manage press releases, media advisories, statements, and responses.
- Coordinate interviews, media briefings, and press coverage involving the Queen and the organisation.

Image and Reputation Management

- Proactively manage the public image of Miss Malawi and the Queen across traditional and digital platforms.
- Monitor media coverage and public sentiment, identifying risks and opportunities.
- Lead crisis communication planning and execution in consultation with the CEO and Chief of Protocol.

Content and Messaging

- Develop key messages, talking points, and narratives aligned with advocacy themes and national values.
- Coordinate photography, videography, and documentation of official activities in consultation with the Chief of Protocol to ensure protocol compliance.
- Manage official social media platforms or supervise content teams responsible for them.

Coordination with Protocol and Programmes

- Work closely with the Chief of Protocol to ensure all communications reflect correct titles, precedence, timing, and ceremonial accuracy.
- Ensure public announcements align with approved schedules and appearances of the Queen.
- Avoid publicizing engagements not cleared through protocol structures.

Internal Communication and Briefings

- Prepare media briefs and public-facing summaries for the CEO and senior management.
- Provide post-event media coverage reports highlighting reach, tone, and impact.

Brand and Institutional Positioning

- Uphold brand guidelines, tone, and visual identity of Miss Malawi.
- Support partnerships and advocacy initiatives through strategic communications.

Authority

- Full authority over media engagement, messaging execution, and content deployment within approved strategy.
- Does not independently schedule the Queen, confirm appearances, or alter protocol decisions.

Reporting

- Submits periodic media and reputation reports to the CEO.
- Coordinates daily operational alignment with the Chief of Protocol without reporting into the role.

8. Contestants Liaison Officer

Position Title: Contestants Liaison Officer

Reports to: COO

Works With: Chief of Protocol (during pageant cycle)

Role Purpose

To manage welfare, communication, and coordination of contestants during competitions and official activities.

Key Responsibilities

- Serve as the primary point of contact for contestants.

- Coordinate training schedules, accommodation, and logistics.
- Ensure adherence to rules, conduct standards, and programme schedules.

Authority

- Manages contestant affairs within established guidelines.

Joshua Mwendo

Chief of Protocol

Miss Malawi organization

30th January 2026